- On 5 October 1949 the Chinese Communist authorities issued secret instructions to all organs of the government ordering the dismissal of any Japanese employed by them. It was indicated that completely reliable Japanese employees might be re-employed after investigation.
- The real objective of the Soviet Cultural Delegation in Manking was the collection of information on the following subjects:
 - The number of members of the Chinese Communist Party in each organ of the city government.
 - The factories in Manking.
 - c. Agricultural and factory production, and the potentialities of the manking area. *
